

Christmas and New Year Message

In these times of terror and fear, it is comforting to express the message of peace together with all our friends and to spread it as the fighting troops did during Christmas at the beginning of the last century (1914- 1918) during a major world conflict.

The British and German soldiers then celebrated Christmas united in a no man's land amongst the trenches...

Peace on earth and in our hearts, without distinction of color, race or religion.

I send you my peaceful greetings and wish you a wonderful Christmas and New Year.

Let us unite to perpetuate the principle of solidarity, to promote tolerance among men and to aspire together to a peaceful world and a bright future without violence for our children.

Unity makes strength!
